

REVISED FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 5, 1996

SUBJECT: (REVISED) SB 2320 - HB 2381

On February 22, 1996, we issued a fiscal note on this bill which indicated that:

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in first year state expenditures of $1,119,000 including recurring expenditures of $678,000 for thirty-two new staff and one-time costs of $441,000 for equipment to process and investigate applications. The fiscal impact is also estimated to increase state revenues by $380,000.

This estimate was based upon information furnished to us by the Department of Safety.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill, based upon additional information about the costs of fingerprint checks furnished by the Department of Safety, is estimated to be increased first year state expenditures of $1,484,100, including recurring expenditures of $ 1,042,800 and one-time expenditures of $441,000. The estimated amount of increased state revenues does not change.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
